Chapter 22 4th moan descending

3rd Moon plase

Vircingeloris plaujs with the variables.

His personalprestige and his computerNetwork do a promo-campaign for absolute democracy.

His opinion d's a militaryleader is respected.

However a couple SPYKILLS would push political parties in particular faShion !

He decides there is not enough time with merepromo's.

It is necessary to do SPYKILLS!

Or do you just let the spies fight it out.

Vircingetoris could ignore or pay a realclosevisit.

With knockout rules instead of take-out rules
there is moveeffect with lessimpact.

Vircingetoris must rely on the affect-of-warning.

He finds this agreeable.

A target is the conservative&militants.

Making his way along as Virangetoris(AKA) he goes to a bar in a lowermiddleclass area.

Going up to the bar he watches the fullcrowd; it is a groovewestern bar/lounge.

Vircingetoris is there at night and has a tip on some aggressive conservatives. Vircingetoris could start a fight and get away after.

Vircingetoris eventually walks up-to-the-group at the bar who are loudly caterwauling

Vircingetoris interjects, 'Excuse me, you are making too much noise. Can you please stop.'

He's surprised they don't immediately knock his head in

The one big fat one yells in his face, 'And who are you?'

Vircingetoris answers, 'That is none of your business!'

The other two say, one with nicely cropped suit, the other in blue jeans & t-shirt, Various vulgarities are displayed on all, 'No... Answer us or we'll smash your face in.

Vircingetoris ducks the charging leap punch. He strongly knocks the one in blue jeans back. The other two jump him. ~~Vircingeto~~

Vircingetoris decided to jump back so he can pull his illegal laser pistol at maximum stun. It was not taken from him at-the-door because he paid off the doorman .

He lays in three bright flashing laser blasts toasting each one.

Before the crowd can react he runs out the frontdoor, the doorman is slovedhardaside leaving A|e locole in a new shape he immediately goesoff to his bodyswitch. This bodyswitchplace is nigh the 'basement' severallayersdown of a highincome friendgeniatric.

The recovery of the health of the three conservativewhiteasses, will take some months. Nothing quite-like nervedistortion to reel them back

Vircingetoris returns to generalmode, a finebody, in any case. While Vircingetoris is 'out-of-his-body' The partialsiliconchips implanted keep it functioning as an advancedcyborg following normal-routine.

The result of all-of-this is like a paralyzation of Thoseconservatives as they tried to-find-out who caused this incapacitation of their tophonchas.

Not reacting quickly enough they can't trace Vircingetoris.

His next focus is the militants who he does in a rondomunlicensed blackcar drive-by.

By moving laster Then his unsuspecting opponents he pushes the parties towards left which would be argued back to absolutemiddle, total democracy.

Not to mention ridding AC of spies, Vircingetou is succeeding!

The next to-target would be the police&religiousities.
